Preserve Your Youth with FemmeScience's Age Control

MIAMI, FLORIDA – March 24, 2010 – Many young women don't realize they need to start caring for their skin while young, healthy and beautiful. Numerous studies have shown that the earlier a woman begins using an anti-aging product, the better her skin will look for a longer period of time. Age Control, the flagship product from skincare company FemmeScience, is a skin preservation treatment formulated to address the very first signs of aging and help prevent future age-related damage.

The revolutionary Age Control combines Retinol, Peptides and CoQ10 (some of the most powerful anti-aging ingredients available to dermatologists) to create a unique solution that effectively improves the appearance of fine lines and loss of firmness, and revitalizes tone and texture, without overloading the skin. The light and silky treatment fights against the underlying causes of age damage that lead to starter wrinkles, age spots, and dullness while stimulating the increased production of collagen and elastin. Age Control uses an exclusive proprietary formula of Alpha Lipoic Acid, Green Tea, Turmeric, Hyaluronic Acid and Vitamin E softens and revitalizes skin, naturally protects it from environmental damage, and plumps it up with moisture. Age Control is a powerful treatment that delivers maximum results, helping young, modern women preserve their youth for years to come.

FemmeScience products are created with dermatological-grade ingredients to enhance the vitality and radiance of youthful skin. Balancing the science of a young woman's skin with the technological innovation required to preserve it for years to come, FemmeScience helps young women maintain the beauty of their skin while addressing concerns specific to them, including sensitivity, dryness, dullness, and the very first signs of aging. FemmeScience stands alone as an effective and modern skincare line that focuses specifically on skin preservation and is specially formulated for youthful skin.
